*A Farewell From Coco To His Family
A Brighter Day Ahead*

*Tis the beginning of a brand new life
No more pain, no more suffering, no ore strife
Tis the ending of this old body of mine
No more thoughts, no more concerns, no more worrying about time.*

*I fulfilled all possibilities
I gave all that I had
Don't you cry, don't you worry
There's no need to be sad.*

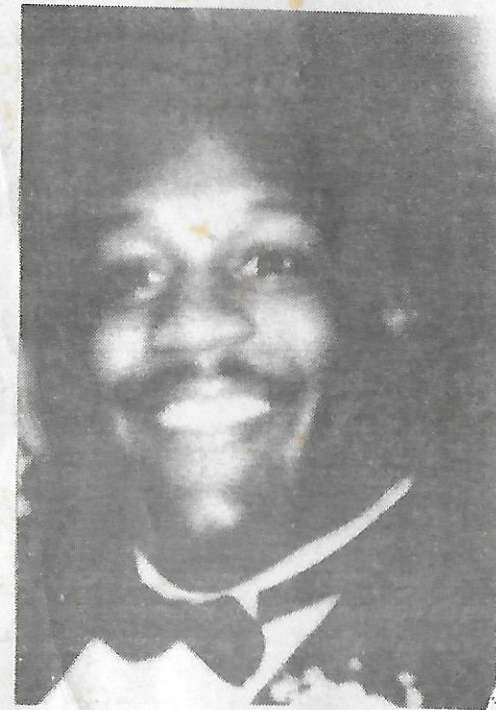

*I know you'll miss me
I know you'll cry
But, I went home with the Lord,
I didn't just die.*

*I could not warn you,
Before I left
But, I had a date with the Lord,
It had to be kept.*

*Gone from this world,
Coming forth in the new
A new life I will lead
Now, I say good-bye to all of you.*

Obituary

ERNEST THOMAS WALKER, JR. was born December 17, 1957 in Chicago, Illinois. He was one of five children born to Ernest Thomas and Eddie Kate Walker.

Ernest departed this life, December 3, 1988 at Michael Reese Hospital.

As a child, he attended Sunday School and Church at Green Grove M.B. Church. After graduation from Chicago Vocational High School, he attended the University of Illinois at Chicago for three years, where he became a gentleman of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, on December 23, 1981. He joined the Chicago Police Department on June 14, 1982, where he received several citations.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Sharon Antoinette Walker; a son, Trenton Thomas Walker; a father, Ernest Thomas Walker, Sr.; a mother, Eddie Kate Walker; a brother, Michael L. Walker; two sisters, Chonita Ditto and Arlene D. Walker; a mother-in-law, Norma J. Murry; two brothers-in-law, Michael A. Murry and Stanford Ditto; a sister-in-law, Kimberly C. Walker; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and many other relatives and friends.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
